Overview

This Sicily hiking trip starts not far from Palermo and is based in the Madonie Mountains. Almost literally 'in the shadow of' the most famous and dominant highest Sicilian peak, the Etna, lays the Parco delle Madonie, an incredibly beautiful yet unknown mountain area south east of Palermo. Rugged cliffs and razor sharp mountain crests almost reaching up to 2000 meters offer great panoramic views. Small villages built like eagles' nests lie scattered against the mountain slopes. Daily life here passes slowly, following the rhythm of the seasons and is strongly influenced by old rituals and traditions. People in the Madonies still live off what nature has to offer. They work the small fields and grow their own vegetables, maintain the olive groves and vineyards and harvest figs, almonds and hazelnuts.

Through this timeless landscape you'll experience a hiking adventure that takes you from the highest mountains to the sea at Cefalú, the famous harbor town with its castle and thousand year old Norman Cathedral.

Itinerary

Day 1 Arrival in Sicily

Our private transfer service will pick you up from the airport of Palermo and take you to your first accommodation, a lovely rebuilt estate, south of Monte Madonie. Enjoying your first dinner at this former olive mill, you'll be surprised at the different regional specialties that are being served here.

Day 2 Portella Castellaro

This is a good four hour walk on which you'll make your first acquaintance with the mountain cliffs of the Madonie. A Jeep brings you a good way up the mountain from where you'll climb up to the Portella Castellaro. Here you are rewarded with lovely views over the rolling hills of Central Sicily as well as the blue Tyrrhenian Sea. The descent back to the estate is easy and panoramic. 7.5 miles 12 km, up 530m, down 900m, 4.5 hours

Day 3 Petralia Scottana

After breakfast you're transferred to the starting point of the walk through the 'Vallone Madonna degli Angeli'. In this secluded valley you'll find at least 26 species of the Abies Nebrodensis, an endemic fir tree that is conserved here. Over the bold top of the Monte Cavallo the walk continues and suddenly and rapidly descends using a small footpath towards the town of Petralia Sottana. Here you'll find hospitality in the local albergo. 9.8 miles 15.5 km, up 580m, down 860m, 6 hours.

Day 4 Pomieri

Today you'll turn to the very heart of the Monte Madonie. A sturdy climb through wooded hills up to a 1500 meter high mountain pass brings you to Pomieri, an isolated mountain hotel with a splendid view of the highest peaks. In springtime the ground is covered with different orchids that grow on these limestone rocks. 10 miles 16 km, up 830m, down 490m, 6 hours

Day 5 Rocca di Gonato

You'll experience a real mountain walk today climbing from Pomieri to the plateau "Piano Battaglia" (1700 m) You make a large circular tour around the Monte Ferro (1900 m) before descending to a very special agriturismo, Rocca di Gonato, where you can recover from your efforts. 8.8 miles 14 km, up 550m, down 1050m, 5.5 hours.

Day 6 Castelbuono

Today you'll say goodbye to the Monte Madonie and descend to a beautiful agriturismo near the town of Castelbuono. Since the walk is short (only 3 hours) you'll have time in the afternoon to enjoy the flower gardens of the agriturismo or have a stroll through Castelbuono. The ancient castle of the Ventimiglia family, the medieval town center and the small streets and squares are worthwhile visiting. 4.4 miles 7 km, up 50m, down 570m, 3 hours.

Day 7 Cefalù

After breakfast you'll be transferred with your luggage to the bus stop of Castelbuono from where you'll travel with public transport to Cefalù. After checking in at your hotel you'll have the rest of the day to yourself. The Norman Cathedral, climbing the Rocca or the cool waves of the sea: the choice is yours. In the evening you'll walk with the local people of Cefalù through the old streets to one of the many restaurants. Overnight in Cefalù. 5 km 100m up , 100m down 2 hours
